Field Lane Awarded FA Charter Standard Development Award

Field Lane Football Club has been awarded Charter Standard Development Award.

Over the past few months Field Lane F.C. have worked hard to reach level two of the Charter Standard Scheme to become a Development Club.

Development Status displays a club's determination and commitment to developing their club further and caters for the growing demands on its members to the minimum FA criteria: To achieve this level, club's must have attained The FA Charter Standard Club criteria plus the criteria listed below:

- At least five teams playing across four age groups
- A 3-5 year football development plan
- One club coach to hold The FA / 1st 4sport Level 2 Certificate In Coaching Football Qualification (Lead Coach)
- One coach to have achieved The FA Youth Award - Module 1 Certificate by July 2010
